

Discover the energy, passion and worldly heritage of Ballarat – Australia's most liveable regional city*

Located just 75 minutes west of Melbourne, Ballarat is home to Federation University's Mt Helen, SMB and Camp Street campuses. Most international students study at our flagship Mt Helen Campus, which boasts a wide range of innovative courses with state-of-the-art facilities, close connections to industry and classrooms surrounded by the beautiful natural environment. Some courses and units are taught from our historic SMB Campus, and our Camp Street Campus is home to our Arts Academy – both located in the heart of Ballarat.

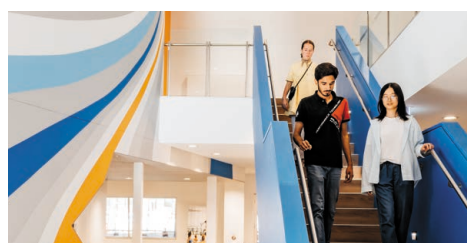

Campus facilities

Spread across 110 hectares of natural bushland, Mt Helen Campus combines modern learning facilities with an impressive selection of indoor and outdoor sporting and leisure facilities. You'll find everything you need to succeed in your studies and enjoy student life:

- state-of-the-art lecture theatres
- specialist technical labs and research hubs
- practical experience simulation rooms
- a library and abundance of study areas
- Fedliving, providing on-campus student accommodation
- a café for all your coffee and study snack needs
- a modern gym, including 25m indoor heated pool.

Discover Ballarat

Ballarat offers excellent lifestyle, education and employment opportunities that you won't find in larger cities. The close-knit community warmly welcomes Federation students – you'll receive friendly waves and often stop for a chat with locals and new friends alike.

From visits to historic Sovereign Hill or the Ballarat Wildlife Park, to exploring local art galleries and taking a stroll around Lake Wendouree – there are fun activities for every season. Did we mention that in the cooler months you may even see snow?

International students at our Mt Helen Campus can also benefit from lower living costs, as well as an attractive range of government incentives, including the opportunity for graduates to stay up to an extended 2 years thanks to the Second Post-Higher Education Work stream.

Transition to university with ease by staying on-campus with Fedliving. Live just minutes from class, join in social events, and feel supported by our residential wellbeing team every step of the way. You'll connect with friends from different cultures and courses, and may even be eligible for a scholarship to help with rental fees. With flexible, convenient options available, Fedliving is a great way to settle in, succeed and start uni with confidence. federation.edu.au/fedliving

Community and industry engagement

Paid work placements in your chosen industry are integrated into many Federation courses with our Co-operative education model (Co-op).

Our Technology Park based at Mt Helen Campus is home to major organisations such as IBM®, Concentrix, Accenture and Grampians Health Ballarat. The precinct is an incubator of innovation, as companies work in collaboration with the University to boost the local economy and provide students with invaluable workplace experiences.

“The Mt Helen Campus has fantastic facilities for students. Life on campus is filled with opportunities to support your time here. There are plenty of services to develop your own skills in academic writing and research as well as for leisure. Even as an international student, I feel that the Mt Helen Campus is ideal for socialising and feeling like I belong in the community.”
