Paid Placement Support Guaranteed*

At Federation, paid work placements are integrated into your study through our Co-operative education model (Co-op). If you're doing one of our Co-op courses, your employer will pay you at least the minimum industry wage (according to the Fair Work Act 2009) while doing placement with them.

Federation guarantees* support for international students who have mandatory placement units but are not doing Co-op courses. With a minimum payment for the placement hours required in their course – up to $10,000 for undergraduates and $5,000 for postgraduates, these payments will be distributed in instalments throughout your study.

* Subject to eligibility criteria, terms and conditions.

$10,000 | $5,000
undergraduate | postgraduate

Research scholarships

Federation works closely with industry and government to provide Higher Degree by Research (HDR) courses that make a difference to you and our local communities.

Each year we offer a diverse range of HDR scholarship options and funded projects to current and future research candidates, that can cover the cost of anything from tuition fees to laptops and financial support for your project.

Visit our Graduate Research School website (federation.edu.au/research/graduate-research-school) for the latest scholarship information, or contact us at: research.degrees@federation.edu.au

Assess your eligibility

If you are undertaking an HDR course, an application or Expression of Interest may be required, separate to your application to study at Federation. Visit our Graduate Research School website for terms and conditions and how to apply: federation.edu.au/hdr-scholarships

"My flatmates became my first friends in Australia, and I immediately felt like I belonged. Having a support system from the start made all the difference – it wasn't just about having a place to stay.

Fedliving at Berwick is only a three-minute walk from campus, which made balancing my studies and personal life so much easier.

I was fortunate to have received the 2023 Pathway to Victoria Scholarship, which provided financial support and made my studies more manageable. It's great to see that there are opportunities like this for international students, as they make higher education in Australia more accessible."
